What will students learn on this course (skills and course content)?

French A Level provides an engaging and exciting opportunity for learners to build on their previous study of French. It also encourages learners to develop their linguistic knowledge and cultural understanding of the countries or communities where the language is spoken, through social, intellectual and cultural themes such as

AS

- Being a young person in French speaking society. Trends, values and opportunities
- Understanding the French speaking world through regional culture and heritage, including literature, films, music and art.

A Level

- Diversity and difference, including migration, integration and celebrating difference.
- France 1940-50 The occupation and the post-war years, looking at life in occupied France and the cultural development.

The course gives an opportunity to study literature and film and allow learners to undertake a deeper analysis of language structures and increase their cultural awareness.

It also requires research on an area of personal interest related to countries where the language of study is spoken with the aim to enhance learners' cultural appreciation and gain a greater awareness of intercultural differences.
